

Do your Dutch- or German-speaking Recruitment Internship in Valencia at Yobbers (September 2026)

Job description

Do you want to inspire people to discover the world and are you currently studying in international business, HR, communications or another relevant field? Then this internship (starting in September 2026) might be for you! 🇪🇸

Welcome at Yobbers

Working abroad is the experience of a lifetime. You broaden your horizons, find your path, and learn to live in the moment. That's why Yobbers makes working abroad easy. We are an international job platform with Dutch, German, and English platforms, through which we serve a wide range of job vacancies. We match people with their dream job abroad and support them throughout the entire process: from finding accommodation to filling out paperwork and giving tips on the best hotspots in their new home country. And now, we are looking for an intern who wants to help us with all of that!

Your recruitment internship in Valencia

You will work together with a team of international recruiters to fill open positions from our employers. You get your own tasks, such as helping candidates with their questions via phone, email and chat and collaborating with international employers. ☎️ You'll conduct telephone interviews with our candidates, optimise the recruitment process and actively seek for potential candidates through our database and other channels. We are looking for someone who enjoys being in contact with people, likes to share their own experience of working abroad and someone who takes an individual and proactive approach. And the best of it all: you get to work in beautiful Valencia! Furthermore, Yobbers organizes many fun online and offline team activities such as Friday afternoon drinks, games and sports activities.

Why you don't want to miss this chance!

- Work from sunny Valencia
- You will work in a young, social and international team
- You will receive an internship compensation
- Fun Friday afternoon drinks, team activities, sports, etc.
- Meet our office dog Nubi
- Opportunities to grow and develop during and after your internship

What am I going to do?

- Helping candidates with their questions via phone, email and chat
- Optimising our recruitment process and interviewing candidates
- Collaborating with international employers

What do I bring?

- You are currently studying in international business, HR, communications or another relevant field
- You are fluent in English (advanced) and German or Dutch (native)
- You are motivated, proactive and independent
- Available for a minimum of 5 months
