Stagiair Business control – investigating possibilities for automation, standardization and simplification of our deliverables.

We have multiple processes and deliverables as Business controllers (~25) and would like to make it more efficient, so we have more time for business advice. There are multiple solutions in place to do the same thing and we would like to make it simpler.

So who can help us making this transparent and come with advice on how to do this better?

Looking forward to your application!