

Qingdao New Global School, XMandarin Chinese Language Centre provides a wide variety of courses for international students who are going to learn Mandarin Chinese during their Qingdao residence. Our Mandarin programs are offered all year round and customized to meet each student's needs: survival, business, travel, daily life, education and so on. In the past years, more than 1000 students from all over the world have registered for Chinese courses with us, enjoying the time with our professional teachers and friendly staff and meanwhile putting into practice the language they learned. Both personal and company training are warmly welcomed and served. Quality assurance is our utmost concern and all feedback from our students is welcome.

Our company:

- Has over 5 years of experience with internships
- Has 50 employees
- Located in Qingdao China

You will be working in an environment with both foreign students and mainland Chinese people which all can speak English. And you will get the possibility to take 1-on-1 Mandarin classes free of charge and to join event which are organized every month.

We will provide you with a visa and will be able to help to find a place to stay (homestay or apartment) the payment will be a base of 1500 RMB a month with the possibility of getting bonuses.

Fields of duty:

Marketing

- Social media
- Motivating new students
- Event planning as well as participating at different events
- International correspondence
- Entrenching international cooperations.

As an intern you will support our marketing department, take over responsibility for your own fields of duty and be contact person for social media and international cooperations.

Requirements:

- Knowledge about social media
- Preferably following a marketing or business education on university level
- Proficient business level English